

Canadian-based Vubiz goes international with expansion of its online corporate courseware!
GoLearn contract seen as a break-through for the Mississauga-based e-learning company

Mississauga, ON (VB) - Vubiz, of Mississauga, Ontario, has been named as the approved provider of online training content for the GoLearn program with the United States government.

"Powering The Office of Personnel Management's GoLearn initiative is an exciting and natural progression for Vubiz, as we build on our existing clients and business interests here in Canada," said Jim Rapino, President and CEO of Vubiz.

"In addition to being a vendor of record for the Government of Canada as well as the governments of Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia," says Rapino, "we now look forward to delivering our unique employee training tools and know-how to the United States government."

Under the contract, Vubiz will offer government agencies throughout the U.S. a catalog of more than 350 online courses covering business management, human resources, management and supervisory skills, financial management, business excellence, communication and government-centric subject areas.

Areas of specialty include business and personal productivity, e-commerce, financial management, strategic management, trade, business culture, organizational performance, quality in the workplace, customer service, entrepreneurship, community development, market research, personal development, workplace culture, health and safety, training trainers, privacy, and change management to name a few.

Vubiz received this contract in Specialized Technical Area 2 under the GoLearn Indefinite Deliverable Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) program.

Visit <http://www.vubiz.com> to examine a full line of possibilities for corporate training.