KMx provides a significant number of learning and talent management capabilities that are not found in any competitive offering. See the white paper titled "Ten Features That Your Learning & Talent Management Suite Does Not Provide" at http://www.kmsi.com/white_paper10.htm to learn more.

Vubiz provides world-class content, software, support and expertise to create an entire online learning solution to meets clients' immediate goals and provide a basis to expand to a more comprehensive offering as objectives evolve and grow. Its partnership with KMSI further enhances its unique and comprehensive value proposition. Explains Vubiz President and CEO, Jim Rapino, "This is an outstanding partnership that gives us both the opportunity to provide the most complete offering of eLearning services at the best price in the market" and Jack E. Lee President and CEO of KMSI further explains the arrangement, "The strategic partnership between Vubiz and KMSI provides us with the ability to offer our clients best –in-class courseware at a significant savings when compared to other providers we have worked with. These savings, coupled with the ease of installation and maintenance of the Vubiz library will enable our clients to shift from their current courseware provider with minimum effort. Our extensive testing of the Vubiz courses has proven that their course player is technically superior to the technology offered by competitive suppliers, providing a much better end-user experience."
